

HYPOTHETICAL YOUTH CLIENT

Devonshea has recently graduated from high school, and he is considering his options for the future. Schooling has never come easy, and he is considering entering the workforce as well as enrolling in community college.

QUESTIONS & EXPECTATIONS

What questions are in his mind? What is he hoping to do or complete?

His high school guidance counselor mentioned CSNCFL, and he's tentatively curious.

What kind of jobs might they help me find?

Does CSNCFL cost anything?

FEELINGS

How is he feeling about his experience?

Excited about finishing high school and moving towards a life of independence

Nervous that there might not be any good career matches or that his skills might not be strong enough

Hopeful that the income from a new job will enable him to buy a new car

INFLUENCES

What people, things or places may influence how he is acting?

A few of his friends have enrolled in the local community college

A few of his friends have begun working part-time jobs

Devonshea

OBSTACLES

What frustrations or obstacles are in his way?

Does not have any work history

Does not have a resume

Is limited to options that would enable him to attend a local community college

ACTIONS

What has he done up to this point?

Has spoken with his high school guidance counselor for ideas

Has asked about career options through his personal contacts

Has considered starting his own business

UNDERLYING GOAL

Devonshea wants to find employment that will allow him to continue his education.
